

NQT offer

3 core sessions, 3 free great reads
and the opportunity to personalise your programme

NQT networking and conference sessions in 2017/18 (venues within schools of the Samuel Ward Academy Trust)

Monday 25 th September 2-5pm	Key ingredients for a successful start to your NQT year – managing time, creating your environment, leading learning and looking after yourself	Includes a free copy of the great read, 'What every teacher needs to know about psychology' by David Didau and Nick Rose
Wednesday 22 nd November 2-5pm	Starting to really have an impact – utilising emerging understanding from the science of learning and evidence informed practices in your teaching	Includes a free copy of a second great read, 'The slightly awesome teacher' by Dominic Salles
Thursday 1 st March 2-5pm	Inspiring and meeting the needs of all learners – supporting the growth of individuals through effective challenge, feedback and planning	Includes a free copy of another great book, 'Release your inner drive' by Bradley Busch and Edward Watson

We are committed to supporting local NQTs as they grow in their new roles. Please contact us should you wish to discuss how experienced, talented and inspiring teachers from across the alliance might be able to provide bespoke support and professional learning for your NQTs throughout the year.

Contact for bookings : Helen Main

Email: hmain@sbtalliance.co.uk

Phone: 01787 314317

Cost: £20 per session or £50 for all three (free to SWAT schools)